FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY AT 31 OCT 2024

The Anchor BCI SA Equity Fund declined by 0.1% in October, outperforming the benchmark FTSE JSE Capped SWIX Index (-0.9% MoM). This was a pleasing outcome in a month where gold and platinum group metal (PGM) miners, which do not feature prominently in the fund on quality grounds, were notable outperformers. We Buy Cars had a solid month (+22% MoM) as investors continue to warm to this Transaction Capital spin-off. Southern Sun (+8% MoM) was also a commendable driver of performance, perhaps as sensible proposals to ease visa rules lead investors to seek potential beneficiaries of improved tourist arrivals ahead. Sadly, not all the fund's smaller capitalisation holdings fared as well. Murray & Roberts (-22% MoM) reversed some of its prior gains as delays in planned debt refinancing caused investor jitters. Regarding changes in the portfolio during October, we added Coronation Fund Managers at the expense of British American Tobacco, seeing the former as a source of similarly attractive dividends but with the potential to benefit from a more robust domestic investment market performance. We also added a position in Foschini, further increasing the fund's discretionary consumer exposure as we continue to position for an improvement off a low base in the months ahead. Capitec reported solid results, prompting us to switch some FirstRand and Absa holdings into Capitec. Finally, we exited a small holding in Mondi following underwhelming quarterly results and signs that the anticipated rise in packaging prices was falling short of expectations.
