RISK PROFILE: HIGH

- This portfolio has a higher exposure to equity markets than any other risk-profiled portfolio and therefore tends to carry higher volatility.
- Expected potential long-term returns are high, but the risk of potential capital losses is high as well, especially over shorter periods.
- Where the asset allocation contained in this MDD reflects offshore exposure, the portfolio is exposed to currency risks.
- This is therefore suitable for long-term investment horizons.

FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY AT 31 JAN 2024

South African equities got off to a poor start in 2024. The FTSE/JSE Capped SWIX Index fell by 2.8% MoM, while our Anchor BCI SA Equity Fund B Class decreased by 1.4%, slightly outperforming its benchmark. The fund's performance was helped by a strong month for several of its larger holdings (Afrimat, AdvTECH, BidCorp and Richemont) and avoiding a further leg lower for the platinum group metals (PGM) miners. The fund's exposure to commodity shares, chiefly responsible for the broader market's poor start to the year, were also its major detractors, notably Sasol, Exxaro and BHP. With little news to necessitate major changes, we made a couple of tweaks to the fund's holdings in January. We started a small position in Mr Price, seeing this as the quality counter through which we aim to somewhat reduce our prior underexposure to the SA consumer. We increased our Grindrod investment after it announced 16% YoY growth in its port operations in Mozambique. We continued to build the fund's position in Dis-Chem, reassured by a strong trading update from Clicks, in which the fund also recently added a stake. We reduced the fund's positions in British American Tobacco and Sasol. Both have been disappointing performers, and despite being undeniably lowly rated, we concluded that the absence of obvious near-term catalysts undermined the case for our level of exposure, especially given the ever-present regulatory risks and, in Sasol's case, the danger of operational problems. We also took some profit in AdvTECH, albeit still a core quality holding in the portfolio.
